Members of the public may contact the DNR for additional information. The Division also receives money from the federal Pittman-Robertson funds (sometimes referred to as Dingell-Johnson and Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration programs). The funds are derived from excise taxes levied on sporting arms and ammunition, bows and arrows, fishing equipment and motor boat fuel. The funds are then returned to state fish and wildlife agencies using a formula that in part is based on the number of hunting and fishing license buyers.

That in part is based on the number of hunting and fishing license buyers.

Rifles and regulation

Permits: In addition to a hunting and/or fishing license the following permits are required:

Traffic

Traffic on public roads through the area is governed by state and county laws. Only foot traffic is allowed on the roads. Keep access roads, farmland or access to farmland clear.

Camping/Swimming

Camping, swimming and fires are prohibited.

Hunting

In addition to state fish and wildlife laws, this property is governed by posted regulations affecting the public use of lands and facilities owned, leased or licensed by the DNR. Posted Areas: Safety zones, refuges, waterfowl resting and other restricted areas are marked with appropriate signs. PLEASE READ AND OBEY ALL SIGNS. Violations of these rules or hunting, fishing, or visiting privileges will result in the loss of hunting, fishing, or visiting privileges on this area.

Your purchase of hunting and fishing equipment and licenses helps fund wildlife and sport fish restoration and fishing access facilities.
